DAYTON CHILDREN'S MEDICAL CENTER

DAYTON, OH

An Excellent Opportunity For a Pediatric Surgeon

The Children's Medical Center of Dayton and Wright State University Boonshoft School of Medicine are searching for a pediatric surgeon to join four pediatric surgeons practicing at The Children's Medical Center in Dayton, OH. This position will entail clinical opportunities and academic responsibilities including teaching medical students and residents and clinical and/or basic research.

The Children's Medical Center of Dayton is a 155-bed private, freestanding, not-for-profit children's hospital that provides a wide range of services for infants, children and teens in a 20-county region in southwest Ohio and eastern Indiana. Dayton Children's provides advanced pediatric care totaling more than 200,000 patient visits annually. Pediatric expertise is offered in more than 35 specialty areas. Centers of excellence include the accredited Cancer Care program, accredited Pediatric Sleep Center, the verified Level II Regional Pediatric Trauma and Emergency Center, the Regional Level III Newborn Intensive Care Unit, Wallace Critical Care Complex and Advanced Surgery Center. Numerous community locations ensure Dayton Children's pediatric expertise is "close to home" for the region's families.

The Wright State University Boonshoft School of Medicine department of pediatrics and its residency program are based at Children's. All of the members of the division of surgery hold faculty appointments and are involved in teaching medical students and residents. Residents in pediatrics, medicine/pediatrics, family practice, child psychiatry, emergency medicine, orthopedics and surgery train at Children's. Opportunities are also available for clinical research.

Dayton, known as the birthplace of aviation, offers big-city amenities coupled with Midwestern hospitality. The Miami Valley offers a variety of public, private and religious education systems, thriving arts and entertainment, minor league baseball team, museums, and parks.

It's time to start considering practice opportunities.

There are thousands of hospitals and single- and multi-specialty groups with opportunities available for you to consider. How do you find and win exactly the right practice opportunity?

NewPhysician has the answers.

NewPhysician is a free resource that was created to help residents and fellows get the information necessary to make informed choices in their careers. During the past five years, NewPhysician has helped thousands of residents and fellows evaluate opportunities by providing answers to questions like: Will I get to live wherever I wish? What do the compensation surveys indicate I should expect for my specialty? How can I successfully negotiate for help paying off my loans? What are "income guarantees" and how can they benefit me? Will this job be in the type of organization in which I would like to work? Will I get to treat the patients and conditions I want to treat? How often will I have to take call? What hours will I be expected to work? What does each element in a contract mean and how does each apply to my situation? How will I learn the business of medicine, how to successfully operate my practice? What questions should I ask during the interview? When will a decision be expected? Who should mentor me in my first months in my own practice?
